NEL PRIMARY CARE WORKFORCE AWARDS

2023

Never Forget The Difference You Make

WHY ENTER & WHAT MAKES A SUCCESSFUL ENTRY

During the past years, everyone within the workforce has faced pressures and challenging times. It is important to recognise and appreciate the workforce and all that they have done. This is an opportunity to recognise and show appreciation for the perseverance and hard work of all the employees.

Why Enter?

This will enhance morale across the team – being shortlisted for an award is a great way to thank both your team and your client for their efforts

Gain feedback on your projects from a panel of senior NHS leaders and decision makers, providing valuable business intelligence around current and future needs of prospective clients

What makes a successful entry?

- Review the list of categories and choose which awards you would apply for.
- Read the specific entry criteria for the award category.
- Assigning a different category and criteria to people in your team may be useful in covering their specialism.
- In order to solidify your choice, have answers to why the nominee should be nominated and what impact they have had to be nominated.
- Prepare any testimonials or quotes from patients or colleagues to support your nomination.
