

We are here for you

We know the events of this week have shocked and deeply affected local people. Please reach out if you need support.

We are a close community in Hainault, and Redbridge Council is here to support you.

SUPPORT AVAILABLE

Victim Support

If you need support after seeing or experiencing events this week, please call the Victim Support phone line on 0808 1689111. They are here for anyone who is affected, and also anyone who needs support after hearing about what happened. www.victimsupport.org.uk

Community Safety Officers from Redbridge Council

We have opened the engagement hub in Hainault Library on Manford Way.

If you would like to speak to our community safety officers, please drop in and see us. We are here for you.

Opening hours:

Monday to Friday: 10am to 6pm

Saturday 10am to 5pm

The hub will be open for the foreseeable future during these hours (but closed on bank holiday Monday).

POLICE

Your local safer neighbourhoods team is also here for you. Their contact details are overleaf.

You will see a strong police presence at the moment, to help ensure everyone feels safe and to support the community. There is no ongoing risk to the public.

Please take care and do reach out if you need support.
