

Initial Health Assessment Outreach Service for Refugees and Asylum Seekers in NEL 'contingency hotels'

Person arrives/or is already homed in contingency hotel accommodation

Engagement

Including the display of posters and other translated literature and verbal discussion about the service. Hotel managers or Doctors of the World (DOTW) book people into the service.

GP registration

DOTW check and confirm for GP registration. If not registered, to support registration with local GP practice.

Person receives comprehensive and holistic Initial Health Assessment

Information Sharing

Health assessment to be shared with GP practice via encrypted email. Practice to read code health assessment using SNOMED codes. Patient to receive printed copy of initial health assessment.

Person is embedded within primary care and health system for further support with health and care needs