

Do you work or volunteer in a community, voluntary, or faith organisation?

Join this session to share your experiences and views on what good community leadership looks like and how health and care partners in north east London can best support it.

If you work or volunteer in a community group, charity or faith setting, this session is for you.

Examples of your activity could be to:

- champion a cause or advocate for a community
- coordinate volunteers
- facilitate a support group or connect people with information and services
- community organise
- gather and share community insight
- bring people together around faith or worship
- and more!

Date: Wednesday 10 December

Time: 11am - 1pm

Location: Mary Ward Centre, 275 – 285 High St, Stratford, London, E15 2TF

Participants will be rewarded for their time and contribution to this activity.
